

Department Support Project Pilot

Provide More Actionable Data

- Easily see how you compare to other departments on key measures
- Data analyses provide 'at a glance' insights
- Full data sets available for a deeper dive

Give you a "Concierge" to Better Tap Existing MIT Resources

- Answer the question: "Who do I call for that?"
- Get help with scheduling and coordinating
- Tailor support to meet your needs and priorities

DSL | Division of Student Life

Make it easy to share your promising practices, and learn from others' good ideas

- Using a take-off of a 'recipe card' you will be able to easily swap, trade, and try new things
- MHH-DSP can help collect approaches that are working for you

Serve up ways to more easily communicate welcoming and inclusive messaging to your department

- Internal communications can make all the difference
- We'll provide a forum for you or your communications staff to share what's working, learn from other participating departments, and meet campus experts
